The IUPUI Program for Intensive English (PIE) will offer an 8-week online non-credit English program for international students as one option for meeting English language proficiency requirements for admission into Purdue University graduate school programs, including programs at Purdue-West Lafayette and Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis, and many IUPUI graduate school programs*.

DETAILS
- Successful completion of PIE Level 7 online is accepted at IUPUI by Purdue graduate programs and the majority of IU graduate programs*.
- PIE Online Level 7 includes courses in advanced Academic Listening, Speaking, Reading, Writing, and Structure in Use (grammar)
- PIE Online Level 7 courses are taught “asynchronously” (not live)
- PIE Online Level 7 is a full-time language program:
  - Courses run for eight weeks (May 11 – July 3, 2020)
  - Participants should expect to spend 20+ hours each week on classwork and assignments
- PIE Online Level 7 participants will be IUPUI non-degree students with access to Canvas, the university’s Learning Management System (LMS), through which all instruction will be delivered

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
- PIE Online Level 7 is an advanced English program. To enroll, students should be able to show proficiency in one of the following ways:
  - Duolingo English Test of at least 92
  - TOEFL of at least 70
  - IELTS of at least 6.0
  - A computer that is no more than three (3) years old, with web-camera and microphone
  - Access to reliable high-speed internet

PROGRAM COSTS
- Program Fee - USD $1,900.00
- Application Fee - USD $100.00

*Note: Some IU graduate programs only accept the TOEFL, and some may require a score higher than the minimum campus standard. Please verify English proficiency requirements with your IU graduate program of interest before completing an application to PIE Level 7 online.
